

FOR APAC INTERNATIONAL
SUMMER SCHOOL 2023

Honorable University Presidents, Dear Professors, Dear Students,
Dear Ladies and Gentlemen, Dear Friends!

*A Warm Welcome to our
FOR APAC International Summer School 2023!*

Judith Suchanek
Executive Director

The Forum Asia Pacific (FOR APAC) continues the long Summer School tradition of the former Chinese Studies Center at the Paris Lodron University of Salzburg (PLUS), which, together with the Eurasia-Pacific Uninet (EPU), has initiated its Chinese-Austrian-EU Summer School for students from higher education institutions from China in 2002.

Last year, the former Chinese Studies Center was transformed into the Forum Asia Pacific to include more countries from the Asia-Pacific region and to strengthen scientific aspects of teaching and research projects in this field.

During the last two Covid-years from 2021 to 2022, we held ONLINE Summer Schools, which were well received by students from our Chinese partner universities, and other institutions in China and other countries.

This year, we hope to be able to hold our Summer School – now called “FOR APAC INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL” on-place and to welcome many students not only from the Asia-Pacific region, but potentially also beyond this region, in order to promote a broader exchange between students from different parts of the world.

We hope that we will attract many students from diverse countries to engage with important topics of our globalized world.

The FOR APAC INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL 2023 offers two versions for the first time: A long four week program will take place in Venice (Italy), Salzburg (Austria), Vienna (Austria), Prague (Czech Republic), Heidelberg (Germany), Leuven (Belgium), Reims (France) and last but not least in Paris (France) from July 13th to August 10th, 2023, and a short two week program which will take place in Salzburg (Austria) and Vienna (Austria) from July 14th to July 28th, 2023.

The Summer School will deal with various topics according to the four leitmotifs of the PLUS. These leitmotifs are Art in Context, Digital Life, Development & Sustainability and Health & Mind.

During this Summer School, we will convey knowledge for a more profound understanding of Europe in various fields, the European Union, European culture and ways of thinking from different perspectives and different worldviews, including philosophy, psychology, music, arts, history etc., but also explore specific outcomes of current research and very topical issues, as well as provide analysis and reflections on those features and the current global situation.

For a detailed insight into our lectures, please have a look at the attached program.

We sincerely hope that these new versions of our Summer School in the frame of FOR APAC will awaken your interest and that of your students.

We are very much looking forward to welcoming your students to our exciting journey in Europe!

Sincerely yours,

Judith C. SUCHANEK 誠曦

Executive Director, Forum Asia Pacific, Paris Lodron University of Salzburg, Austria

Please note: Since all the lectures will be held in English, having a good proficiency of written and spoken English is a basic prerequisite for participation. Responsible contact persons from our member institutions should make sure that the English language abilities of the selected students are meeting this minimum requirement.
